Connect and Serve Joint Sunday Schools

February 14 & February 21

9:45-10:35 am

Redeemer Church, PCA 640 E. Northside Drive Jackson, MS 39206 Elbert McGowan, Jr., Senior Pastor

CONNECT SUNDAY SCHOOL—FEBRUARY 14, 2021

Growth Groups, Rachael Garner, rachlgarner@gmail.com

Growth Groups serve as a way to know and be known in a smaller and more intimate setting through fellowship and discussion centered around the weekly sermon. We meet at locations around the Jackson area, mostly in members' homes, twice a month on Wednesdays or Sundays during the Fall and Spring semesters.

Sunday School, Brian Gault, bgault@redeemerjackson.com

This Spring our Joint Adult Sunday School will meet in Sanctuary for an in-depth theological study of the Doctrines of Grace. It will also be available over Livestream. The course will examine:

- How creeds, confessions, and history shape our understanding of the Bible
- The 5 "Alones" of the Reformation: Grace Alone, Christ Alone, Faith Alone, Scripture Alone, To the Glory of God Alone.
- Total Depravity, Unconditional Election, Limited Atonement, Irresistible Grace, Perseverance of the Saints
- Covenant Theology and the Church & Sacraments

Children and Youth Sunday School will also meet at this time, and Nursery will be available.

Women's Ministry, Emily Shuler, emily.shuler@gmail.com

Our purpose is relationship — with God, each other, and the women of our community. We aim to support one another, encourage each other's spiritual growth, and serve the church. We provide many opportunities to grow, learn, serve, and fellowship with women of diverse backgrounds, cultures, and generations. We'd love for you to join us!

Men's Ministry, Brian Gault, bgault@redeemerjackson.com

Men's Ministry is a place where men can:

- Connect with other men in the church and build relationships.
 - Consider pursuing "Paul," "Timothy," or "Silas" relationships.
- Develop habits and routines in the Christian life around Scripture, prayer, fellowship, and loving others.
- Grow in our faith, specifically in our...
 - Awareness of our own hearts (motivations & idols) Love for the Gospel Imitation of Christ Love for others (Spouse, Family, Church, Those who aren't like us)

Redeemer Community Arts, Paul Rankin, paulrank27@gmail.com

Redeemer Community Arts seeks to foster a culture of creative activity through fellowship, growth, and witness among artists, the body of Christ, and the world. Monthly meetings provide artists opportunities for fellowship and encouragement alongside anyone who loves art as a means to enjoy and participate in the God-given creativity of their brothers and sisters at Redeemer Church.

Redeemer Young Adults, Walker Martin, james.walker.martin@gmail.com

Pipeline draws young adults into the life of Redeemer by providing opportunities to build ethnically, economically, and culturally diverse relationships; to grow spiritually through Bible study; and to minister in and through the church.

Crossroads & Rooted, Wright Busching, wbusching@redeemerjackson.com

The mission of our youth ministry is to support the vision of Redeemer Church by leading to Christ and growing in Christ the 6th-12th grade students of our church and community.

Upside Down, Zack Owens, zowens@redeemerjackson.com

Upside Down is a discipleship ministry for kids from our church, school and community. For 12 weeks each semester, mentors and support volunteers lead nearly 140 kids through memory making activities (teaching, memorization, eating, playing, and singing) to disciple them towards repentance and faith in Jesus, build relationships with them, and encourage them as they grow – heart, mind, soul, and strength. Upside Down is high energy and highly relational – we hope to see you there!

Parenting Book Discussion, Brian Gault, bgault@redeemerjackson.com

On 6 Wednesday nights this Spring, we will get together to discuss parenting out of Christian wisdom using Cloud and Townsend's Boundaries with Kids. Drop your kids off at Crossroads and Upside Down and join the discussion. To register or for more information, visit our website: https://redeemerjackson.com/event/boundaries-with-kidsbook-discussion-begins/

SERVE SUNDAY SCHOOL—FEBRUARY 21, 2021

Nursery, Velma Warner, vwarner@redeemerjackson.com

The Redeemer Church nursery depends on God's abundant grace to keep the Gospel central to all its work. We seek to be warm, loving, and hospitable, modeling the love of Christ not only to visiting children but also to their parents and families. To welcome these little ones is to welcome Christ Himself!

Ushering, Philip Carter, philipccarter@gmail.com

Volunteers hand out bulletins, take up the offering, record attendance, assist with seating, and straighten up after the service. Men and women volunteers are welcome!

Mission to Broadmoor, Steve Lanier, slanier@redeemerjackson.com

Mission to Broadmoor promotes community development and personal growth through initiating various outreach activities that create an environment for the development of solid and safe relationships, evangelism, networking and educational opportunities within our neighborhood that further both the shalom of our city and the growth of the kingdom of God.

The Redeemer's School, Jewell Hillery, jhillery@wearetrs.org

VISION: To raise native, transformative leaders in our community who are equipped with a rigorous, diverse, and gospel-centered education.

MISSION: Providing an academically excellent and diverse Christian education and environment to students in the Broadmoor community and the city of Jackson.

Hope Exchange, Levi Gill, levijgill@gmail.com

Hope Exchange uses biblically based job preparedness and financial literacy tools that equip individuals with practical skills & knowledge; it provides training & volunteer engagement for the church body; it facilitates inclusive and collaborative learning opportunities and empowering relationships; and it builds bridges to quality employment and financial security.

Abba's Hope, Kristen Owens, KLOwens08@gmail.com

Abba's Hope seeks to love, support, and encourage families that foster and adopt. These families have all sorts of needs including: respite, clothing, toys, beds, car seats, work around the home, meals, tutoring, mentoring, childcare, and prayer. We want to care for these families as our own extended family by raising awareness for and helping to meet these needs, and by providing encouragement when life gets overwhelming.

Redeemer Engaging Disabilities, Sara Douglas Clark, clarkcrewsdc@bellsouth.net

Redeemer Engaging Disabilities (RED) supports families touched by disability and helps integrate those with special needs into the life of our church. Our goal is to see God glorified by proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ in word and in deed with those who have special needs.

Security Team, David Garner, David.Garner@hope-ec.org

Gatekeepers (Security Team) provides safety and protection from physical threats for our church. We oversee security for all services and major events. We have several capacities in which people serve. There are requirements for serving on this vital team.